Senate Resolution 32

Senator Wilson offered the following resolution:

Whereas, the 24th Annual Tyler County Dogwood Festival will be held in Woodville, Texas, on Saturday, March 25, 1967; and

Whereas, this outstanding event has been held each year since 1940 with the exception of the war years and annually attracts thousands of people from throughout Texas and Louisiana and from distant points; and

Whereas, an outstanding Historical Pageant is presented each year depicting some part of the colorful history of this region of Texas, following the coronation of a lovely young lady of Tyler County as Queen of the Dogwood Festival; and

Whereas, the coming of the Dogwood each year, with its white blossoms, is the traditional signal for the farmer to plant his corn, the sportsman to go fishing and the politician to announce for office, and this season is particularly beautiful in the woods of East Texas; and

Whereas, the contribution through the years of the Tyler County Dogwood Festival to the preservation of the history and heritage of this State and to the observance of the coming of spring should be noted and celebrated by all Texans; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Texas, in regular session assembled on this the 19th day of January, A.D., 1967, that the week of March 19th through March 25th, 1967, be designated as "Dogwood Week in Texas"; and

Be It Further Resolved that the best wishes of the Members of the Senate of Texas be extended to the people of East Texas as they again observe the coming of Spring in Story, Pageant and Song, when "It's Dogwood Time in Tyler County."

Address by Senator Hardeman on Birthday of General Robert E. Lee

The President recognized Senator Hardeman and he delivered the following address:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I think that most of us are aware that this is the anniversary of the birthday of a great American—General Robert E. Lee. I want to make a few brief remarks quoting, from Senator Benjamin Hill who paid a great tribute to this peerless leader. Senator Hill said:

"When the Historian of the future shall come to survey the character of General Lee, he will find it rising like a high mountain above the undulating plain of humanity and he must lift his eyes high toward heaven to catch a glimpse of its summit.

"He possessed every virtue of other great commanders without their vices. He was a foe without hate; a friend without treachery; a soldier without cruelty; a victor without oppression; a victim without murmuring.

"He was a public officer without vices; a private citizen without wrong; a neighbor without reproach; a Christian without hypocrisy; a man without guile.

"He was Caesar without his ambition; Frederick without his tyranny; Napoleon without his selfishness and Washington without his reward. He was obedient to authority as a servant, and royal in authority as a true king.

"He was as gentle as a woman in life; modest and pure as a virgin in thought; watchful as a Roman vestal in duty; submissive to law as Socrates; and grand in battle as Achilles."

There can be no greater goal for us all than to attain this spirit of greatness exemplified by this man. His spirit of devotion to God and Country leave us a great heritage and cherished ideals.

I close with the words of the poet who said:

"His hoofbeats die not on fame's crimsoned sod,
But shall ring through his song and story,
He fought like a Titan and struck like a god,
His dust is our ashes of glory."

As we adjourn today, let us do so in memory of this gentle American to whom "Fate denied victory, but clothed him with immortality."

Thank you.
